

Dennis GARITY

Techniques for removing boundary intersections in Bing Whitehead constructions

Abstract: We will discuss geometric techniques needed to characterize when two Bing Whitehead Cantor sets are equivalent. Techniques used include the geometric index and a careful application of geometric properties detailed in an earlier paper by David Wright. We will outline the entire proof and provide details as time permits.